

LAMBDA ALPHA NATIONAL SCHOLARSHIP

Your chapter may send forward only ONE candidate for this award. The Lambda Alpha National Scholarship of $5,000 is to be awarded to a *TRUE graduating senior (summer 2018) majoring in anthropology. The winners of the scholarships will be announced in June, 2018. To commemorate Lambda Alpha's 50th anniversary in 2018, three $5,000 scholarships will be awarded to the top three scholarships applicants selected by the National Executive Council Members.

As a requirement for your candidate's participation in the Scholarship award competition, the chapter faculty sponsor must assist in forwarding (no e-mail submissions accepted) to the National Office before the postmarked March 15 deadline, 4 copies (one original for the National Office and 3 copies for the National Executive Council members) the following materials printed front-to-back and stapled, with NO covers/folders:

1. A letter of nomination from the department or appropriate academic unit stating the candidate is applying for the National Scholarship.
2. Curriculum vitae.
3. A statement signed by the applicant, located on page 4, giving permission to the National Executive Council members to view submitted transcripts.
4. One official, original academic transcript and 3 copies of transcripts of all undergraduate institutions attended by the applicant.
5. Two (2) supporting letters of recommendation; one letter must be from a professional anthropologist (4 copies each). The letters should be forwarded to the faculty sponsor by the letter writers to include in the application packet.
6. A statement of future professional plans limited to one page or less, single spaced. (4 copies)
7. A document must be submitted in manuscript form, double spaced, no less than 10 pages in length, that is ready for consideration for publication in the Lambda Alpha Journal. (4 copies). The purpose is to evaluate formal writing skills, and the ability to compose a research paper. Original thesis manuscripts, previously published papers, co-authored publications and contract archaeological reports are not acceptable. Please submit the required original manuscript in a pdf file on a CD, thumb drive, or flash drive and any associated graphics. The file will be sent to the Editor-In-Chief, Dr. Peer Moore-Jansen for consideration in the Lambda Alpha Journal via Melanie Cabak of the National Office.

*TRUE: An applicant is considered an eligible graduating senior for purposes of competing for the Lambda Alpha National Scholarship Award if she/he has acquired formal senior status since the last competition or if she/he competes as an ongoing senior, but must then graduate by the end of the academic year. An applicant can compete only once for the award.
