2018 Lambda Alpha Awards, Grants, and Memberships Application Information

The UGA Department of Anthropology Society is the Zeta Chapter of Lambda Alpha.

On this (Resources) webpage are links for awards information and necessary forms to submit.

- To apply for an award, grant, or to enter a paper competition you must first join Lambda Alpha National Honor Society. Memberships are lifetime memberships. Please review the information and requirements linked below.
- Your application fee must be paid with a personal check made out to Lambda Alpha. The one-time application fee is $25.
- You may submit your application form and check along with your application for an event, award, or paper entry.
- You will need to submit your original transcripts from UGA and other higher education institutions. (1) original set of transcripts and (3) copies
- Request a UGA transcript in person so that you may pick it up from the Office of the Registrar yourself rather than wait for it to be mailed. UGA transcript requests page

The 2018 Lambda Alpha National Scholarships (undergraduate) contestants are selected by the department’s undergraduate coordinator, Dr. Jennifer Birch. Please contact her once you have reviewed all scholarship information and request to join the list of potential nominees.

- If you are selected you must first join Lambda Alpha National Honor Society. Memberships are lifetime memberships. Please review the information and requirements linked below.
- Your application fee must be paid with a personal check made out to Lambda Alpha. The one-time application fee is $25.
- Please put your check for the membership application fee in Deborah Chasteen’s staff mailbox in Baldwin Hall room 250, the department’s main office, no later than March 14, 2018 by 5:00 p.m.

For all award considerations, disregard the mailing instructions included on each information sheet. Instead:

Gather all of your materials, check for your membership fee and paperclip together as a packet. Please put this in Deborah Chasteen’s staff mailbox in Baldwin Hall room 250, the department’s main office, no later than March 14, 2018 by 5:00 p.m.

Lambda Alpha Membership Information and Requirements