

DEPARTMENT OF ANTHROPOLOGY
ROBERT E. RHOADES PRE-DISSERTATION TRAVEL AWARD

The Department of Anthropology Robert E. Rhoades Pre-Dissertation Travel Award provides support for graduate students in anthropology to visit prospective field sites with the goal of enhancing the quality of their research and their potential for obtaining external funding to support their research. The departmental awards committee determines the number of awards to be made each year and selects the applicants to receive awards. This financial assistance is a legacy of the late Distinguished Research Professor Robert Rhoades who understood the value of pre-dissertation travel for enhancing student research as well as the difficulties students encounter in obtaining funding for such activities.

APPLICATION DEADLINE IS THE FIRST FRIDAY IN FEBRUARY BY 5:00 P.M.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

The applicant must be at least a second-year graduate student in good standing enrolled in the Ph.D. program in anthropology at the University of Georgia.
